What took shape during your conversations?
Insights

- People move faster than programs or policy.
- Every project has a starting point and a turning point.
- Elected officials increase profile.

Challenges

- Money for new programs = less money for old programs.
- Each community proceeds at its own pace.
- This work is labor intensive and muddy.

Applications

- Start small and grow big.
- Scale the work according to capacity and pace.
- Cultivate partnerships in unlikely places.
