CALL FOR ABSTRACTS
13th Annual History of Medicine and Public Health Night

The New York Academy Section on the History of Medicine and Public Health invites you to submit abstracts for presentation for the 13th Annual History of Medicine and Public Health Night, to be held virtually on Wednesday, February 23, 2022. Submissions should be on the theme of the politics of disease prevention. Other submissions will be considered depending on the quality of submissions or the possibility of holding a second session of presentations.

Abstracts (not to exceed 250 words) should be submitted with authors’ contact details, titles, and affiliations.

Submissions will be reviewed by the Executive Committee of the History of Medicine and Public Health. Selected abstract presenters will be invited to prepare a presentation of no more than 10 minutes followed by Q & A.

Deadline for submission is Tuesday, December 31, 2021.

Contact Donna Fingerhut (dfingerhut@nyam.org) with any questions or to submit your abstract.

ABOUT THE ACADEMY

The New York Academy of Medicine (NYAM) tackles the barriers that prevent every individual from living a healthy life. NYAM generates the knowledge needed to change the systems that prevent people from accessing what they need to be healthy such as safe and affordable housing, healthy food, healthcare and more. Through its high-profile programming for the general public, focused symposia for health professionals, and its base of dedicated Fellows and Members, NYAM engages the minds and hearts of those who also advancing health equity to maximize health for all. For more information visit NYAM.org.